RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation, you hold a number of rights in relation to our processing of data about you. If you want to invoke any of these rights, please contact us.

Right to see data (right of access)

You have the right to access the data about you which we process, as well a number of other data items.

Right to correction (rectification)

You have the right to have incorrect data about you corrected.

Right to erasure

In special cases, you have right to have data about you deleted before the date of our normal deletion occurs.

Right to restriction of processing

In certain cases, you have the right to have the processing of your personal data restricted. If you have the right to have processing restricted, we may only carry out future processing of data – apart from storage – with your consent, or with a view to establishing a legal claim, or to exercise or defend such a claim, or for the purpose of protecting a person or significant public interests.

Right to object

In certain cases, you have the right to object to our otherwise legitimate processing of your personal data. You may also object to our processing of your data for direct marketing, or in cases where our processing is the result of a balancing of interests.

Right to transmit data (data portability)

In certain cases, you have the right to receive your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format and the right to have these personal data transmitted from one data controller to another without hindrance.

You can read more about your rights in the guideline from Datatilsynet (the Danish Data Protection Agency) on the rights of data subjects; you will find this data at www.datatilsynet.dk.

Complaint to the Danish Data Protection Agency

You have the right to file a complaint with the Danish Data Protection Agency if you are dissatisfied with the way we process your personal data. The contact data for the Danish Data Protection Agency is available at www.datatilsynet.dk.
